

ROUTE DESCRIPTION

Starting in Innerleithen, head south on Leithen Crescent to join the scenic Tweed Valley Railway Path, heading east for the short ride to Walkerburn.

Cross the River Tweed, bearing right to follow the quiet back road towards Traquair. Turn right at the war memorial and continue past the historic Traquair House – believed to be Scotland’s oldest inhabited house – following the road through Cardrona and on to Peebles.

Re-cross the river in Peebles and re-join the Tweed Valley Railway Path heading back east. This well-signed and traffic-free tarmac path follows the picturesque River Tweed for much of the way, with opportunities to stop for refreshments in Cardrona and at the Peel Café in Glentress before you eventually arrive back at your start point in Innerleithen.
